Providence Public Library's Wine Tasting Providence Public Library's Wine Tasting The event featured a winemaker from Italy By Carly Barnhardt Providence Public Library combined the pleasures of fine wine and storytelling for its spring gala. The event featured a wine-tasting dinner for 150 people with Ester Bianchini, winemaker and heir to the Ciacci-Piccolomini D'Aragona winery in Montalcino, Italy. The library raised $80,000 to fund its free programs that are designed for all ages.
